

Travel-Friendly Products

We love to hear about products that solve a problem; here we include a list of products that all make traveling with your family easier. Even a relatively short trip taken in the car may be made better with the right accessories. Be sure to check product websites for a list of local retailers. Happy trails!

Problem:

Another restaurant with no high chair.

Solution:

The Snazzy Baby Travel Chair ($35) turns virtually any chair into an instant high chair for babies old enough to hold up their head up to 35 pounds. Folds into portable travel pouch. (snazzybaby.us)
