

Snazzy Baby Deluxe Travel Chair Review And Giveaway!

I recently had the opportunity to review an award winning baby product by Snazzy Baby. The company was created “Down Under” by an Aussie Mom named Cyndy Mundy. Founded in 2003 Snazzy Baby has received various juvenile product awards for excellence, innovation and safety.

Whenever I am in need of a baby product, safety is at the forefront of my decision making. I was excited to learn that I would have the opportunity to try out one of their award winning baby products, the Deluxe Travel Chair. The Snazzy Baby travel chair is a 4-in-1 seat that works as a temporary child restraint for just about any scenario. The seat can be used from the time a child can sit unsupported until they weigh up to 37 lbs. The travel chair can attach to any standard chair, a shopping cart, it can even attach to you as a lapseat or for hands-free holding or feeding. The possibilities are endless!

My absolute favorite feature is the non-slip bottom to keep your kids sitting upright. Snazzy Baby really thought of everything! And because I am big on safety, I can truly appreciate the four easy-to-secure buckles. The travel chair is simple to use and safe for your little ones. When I’m not using my deluxe chair it simply rolls up as a storage bag which makes it super convenient! I was very impressed with the Snazzy Baby deluxe travel chair and can easily see why it has received such accreditation.

If you are in the need of something convenient for travel or even something handy for around the house that can easily be stowed away-this is definitely a product worth checking out. I would definitely recommend this travel chair for added safety at restaurants and the grocery store. It’s also machine washable which makes it all the more convenient for us busy Moms.
